

COVID-19 response policy

Pitt&Moore is committed to ensuring the health and safety of all of its partners, staff, clients, service providers and our respective whānau. Our priority is to ensure that we do everything we reasonably can to prevent those persons from being exposed to the risks of COVID-19.

Accordingly, effective from 4 April 2022, our COVID-19 response policy requires all of our staff, clients, and any visitors (including suppliers) to comply with all applicable COVID-19 health and safety measures, including wearing masks.

In accordance with this policy, we are only able to have in person meetings with clients that are not required to self isolate. We will ask you to wear a mask when visiting Pitt&Moore offices.

We will continue to review our policy as the situation develops.
